

Rules of official competitions in draughts-64 Of International Draughts Federation (IDF)

Approved by the IDF General Meeting of August 29, 2016

Changes and additions by decision of the IDF Board from 16.12.2016, 04.12.2017

1. The International Draughts Federation (IDF), hereinafter – International Draughts Federation, organized and conducts all official competitions in draughts-64.
2. The immediate holding of all competitions are assigned to the national federations, organizations in draughts-64 and the Organizing Committee on the basis of competitive procedures and decisions of the IDF Board. Conditions of the International Draughts Federation official competitions and application form are approved by the IDF Board 16.12.2016, 04.12.2017 and published on the official website www.idf64.org
3. All competitions are conducted at the expenses of the organizing authority, sponsors of competitions, tournament fees and sending organizations.
4. International Draughts Federation provides overall management of the competition, communication with the Organizing Committee and the federations, an invitation of the participants and awarding of winners by official awards.
5. In all official competitions only representatives of national federations – the members of the International Draughts Federation (IDF) are eligible to participate. Representatives of other federations may be invited to the participation as an exception.
6. All championships are conducted in accordance with the IDF Rules of official competitions and the Rules of the game in draughts-64.
7. Nominations of Main Arbiters are approved by the IDF Board on submission of the Technical Committee. Nominations of the referees are approved by the IDF representative, which is appointed on the tournament by the IDF Board.

8. The Official competitions in draughts-64.

- 8.1. World Men Championship
- 8.2. World Women Championship
- 8.3. World Team Championship
- 8.4. Personal-team World Youth Championship among boys and girls in age groups:
 - juniors 26 year and younger
 - juniors 19 year and younger
 - cadets 16 year and younger
 - mini-cadets 13 year and younger
 - hopes 10 year and younger
 - youth hopes 8 year and younger
- 8.5. World Veteran's Championship
- 8.6. World Championship for people with disabilities
- 8.7. Matches for the world title
- 8.8. World Cup
- 8.9. Olympiad in draughts-64
- 8.10. Youth Olympiad in draughts-64
- 8.11. European Men Championship
- 8.12. European Women Championship
- 8.13. European Team Championship
- 8.14. Personal-team European Youth Championship among boys and girls in age groups:
 - juniors 26 year and younger
 - juniors 19 year and younger
 - cadets 16 year and younger
 - mini-cadets 13 year and younger
 - hopes 10 year and younger
 - youth hopes 8 year and younger

- 8.15. European Veteran's Championship
- 8.16. European Championship for people with disabilities
- 8.17. Championships of Asia, Africa, Pan America
- 8.18. International competitions under the auspices of International Draughts Federation, which were included in the official calendar of events.

9. Official titles.

9.1. Winners of championships receive titles:

- 9.1.1. World Draughts-64 Champion
- 9.1.2. World Draughts-64 Champion in Rapid
- 9.1.3. World Draughts-64 Champion in Blitz
- 9.1.4. European / Asian / African / Pan American Draughts-64 Champion
- 9.1.5. European / Asian / African / Pan American Draughts-64 Champion in Rapid
- 9.1.6. European / Asian / African / Pan American Draughts-64 Champion in Blitz

9.2. The winners of the World Cup receive titles:

- 9.2.1. World Cup winner in draughts-64
- 9.2.2. World Cup winner in Blitz game of draughts-64
- 9.2.3. World Cup winner in draughts-64 among women
- 9.2.4. World Cup winner in Blitz game of draughts-64 among women
- 9.2.5. World Cup winner in draughts-64 among juniors
- 9.2.6. World Cup winner in Blitz game of draughts-64 among juniors

9.3. Winner of Olympiad receive the title: "Champion of the Olympiad in draughts-64"

9.4. IDF can assign other titles, depending on the type of competition.

10. Types of competition and time control.

10.1. Competitions are held in three programs: with the classic time control, rapid game and blitz game.

10.2. Time control.

10.2.1. In competition with the classic time control can be used up next time control:

- 45 minutes till the end of the game plus 30 seconds per move
- 45 minutes till the end of the game plus 15 seconds per move
- 45 minutes till the end of the game plus 10 seconds per move
- 40 minutes till the end of the game plus 10 seconds per move
- 30 minutes till the end of the game plus 10 seconds per move
- 25 minutes till the end of the game plus 05 seconds per move
- 20 minutes till the end of the game plus 10 seconds per move

10.2.2. In the competition for a rapid game:

- 10 minutes till the end of the game plus 3 or 5 seconds per move
- 07 minutes till the end of the game plus 3 or 5 seconds per move
- 05 minutes till the end of the game plus 3 or 5 seconds per move

10.2.3. In the competition for blitz game:

- 3 minutes till the end of the game plus 2 or 3 seconds per move.

By decision of the IDF Board other time control in each program may define according to separate regulations.

11. The system of holding.

11.1. All competitions are held by the system of micro-match from two games.

11.2. The drawing is held before the beginning of the first game of micro-match. The drawing is binding for both games of micro-match (the drawing are not carried out in the competition for players 13 years and younger).

The following drawing can be used:

- Initial moves and positions according to the table, approved on 16.12.2016
- Moves and positions according to the table, approved on 05.05.2016
- The first move of white and black
- The first move of white

Other variants of drawing may be applied by the decision of the IDF Board by the separate rules.

11.3. All personal championships are held by the Swiss system in 7-9 rounds or on a two-stage mixed system on separate regulations.

11.4. It is allowed for a small number of participants to hold competitions by round robin system.

12. Participants.

12.1. All personal competitions are held separately for men and women (boys and girls) in the following age groups:

1. Men and women – no age limit
2. Juniors – 26 years and younger
3. Juniors – 19 years and younger
4. Cadets – 16 years and younger
5. Mini-cadets – 13 years and younger
6. Hopes – 10 years and younger
7. Youth hopes – 8 years and younger
8. Veteran's men – 50 years and older
9. Veteran's men – 60 years and older
10. Veteran's women – 50 years and older

12.2. To participate in the personal World Championships among men and women are allowed:

12.2.1. Classic program:

- Winners of the previous World Championship
- Winners of the World Cup of the year preceding the Championship
- 1-6 place of European Championship, qualifying for the World Championship
- Winners of the other continental championships, qualifying for the World Championship
- Other winners of qualifying tournaments for the World Championship
- Players from national federations – not more than three participants from country
- 2 players from sponsors
- 2 players on the decision of the IDF Board
- Additional players from the organizers by the decision of the IDF Board.

12.2.2. Blitz and Rapid

- Players under item 12.2.1.
- Players from national federations in accordance with the Championship Regulations

12.3. To participate in the personal European Championships among men and women are allowed winners of the previous European Championship, winners of the World Cup of the year preceding the Championship, players from the national federations in accordance with the Regulations of the Championship.

12.4. To participate in the personal World (European) Youth Championships among juniors, cadets, mini-cadets, hopes and youth hopes are allowed: winners of previous championship, players declared by the national federations.

12.5. To participate in the World (European) Championships among veterans are allowed players declared by the national federations.

12.6. World (European) Team Championship.

Team competitions are held separately among men's and women's teams. Admission of teams is on a separate Position.

The team consists from:

- up to 6 persons for men's team (3 players + 3 extra players)
- up to 4 persons for women's team (2 players + 2 extra players)

Only one invited player can to be in a composition of men's or women's team except teams of Russia, Ukraine, Belarus (on separate rules).

12.7. Olympiads in draughts-64, World Cup, World Championships for people with disabilities are held on separate rules.

12.8. Matches for the world title are held on separate rules. Participants of the match are in order of priority:

- 12.8.1. Previous world champion invites on match the current world champion.
12.8.2. Silver medalist at the last World Championship invites on match the current world champion.
12.8.3. Free call. Any player from the top-50 invites on the match the current world champion.
- 12.9. According to the decision of the IDF Board may be held other events on separate rules.

13. Requirements for participants.

13.1. Participants are required to observe Rules and Regulations of the competition, IDF Code of ethics, decision of the IDF Board.

13.2. Participants are obliged to comply with the dress code - have a sports form during the competition, or clothing appropriate to the rank of the competition; as well as clothing for formal events (opening, closing etc.) - suit and light shirt for men, dress or pantsuit for women.

13.3. Participants are required to accommodate in official places provided by the organizers the entire period of the competition.

13.4. Participants who are not registered for the participation in the competition in time according to the Regulations of the competition can be applied sanctions.

13.5. Participants, spectators and coaches are required to turn off their mobile phones in the games room, in case of phone call participant loses micro-match.

13.6. Participant who is late to the game is booked. If the participant was late by more than the first time control in the first game of micro-match, he gets 0 points in the micro-match. Repeated lateness of the game may be penalized up to expulsion from the tournament.

13.7. Participant who allowed incorrect behavior gets caution or a warning. Warning from the Main Arbiter or the chairman of the Jury of Appeal entails a fine ranging from 0 to 100% of prize money promised to participants or other sanctions.

13.8. Participants are required to attend at the opening and closing ceremony in compliance with the dress code. In case of absence the closing ceremony they will be deprived all official awards. Awards not sent and not transmitted.

13.9. Protests are served in the panel of arbiters for half an hour after the end of the round, if the regulations of competition do not provide another; when filing the protest a deposit in the amount of 100 euros is given, in case the protest is upheld the deposit is returned. After this period the protests are not accepted and are not considered. Any protest after the deadline is considered as incorrect behavior with the use of sanctions.

14. Determination of winners.

14.1. Places in individual competition are determined by the maximum amount of points scored by the participants. For the victory is given 2 points, for a draw 1, for a loss 0.

14.2. In case of a tie score of two or more participants their places are defined by the following criteria:

14.2.1. In the Swiss system, depending of pairing program:

Pairing program Tournament manager:

For even number of participants:

- the amount of points scored by all competitors (Buchholz coefficient);
- the amount of points scored by opponents minus the lowest result (truncated Solkoff coefficient);
- the amount of points scored by opponents, excluding the 2 lowest results, 3 lowest results, etc.
- in case of equality of all criteria – match before the first victory with shortened time control (special regulations).

For an odd number of participants:

- the amount of points scored by opponents minus the lowest result (truncated Solkoff coefficient);
- the amount of points scored by all competitors (Buchholz coefficient);
- the amount of points scored by opponents, excluding the 2 lowest results, 3 lowest results, etc.
- in case of equality of all criteria – match before the first victory with shortened time control (special regulations).

Pairing program Chess Arbiter for draughts:

For even number of participants:

- amount of points scored by all competitors (Buchholz coefficient);
- amount of points scored by opponents, excluding the lowest result, 2 lowest results, 3 lowest results, etc.
- in case of equality of all criteria – match before the first victory with shortened time control (special regulations).

For an odd number of participants:

- amount of points scored by opponents, excluding the lowest result, 2 lowest results, 3 lowest results, etc.
- amount of points scored by all competitors (Buchholz coefficient);
- in case of equality of all criteria – match before the first victory with shortened time control (special regulations).

14.2.2. In round robin system:

- Sonnenborn-Berger or Shmulian coefficient;
- result of a personal game;
- best results with other participants in the order of their places;
- in case of equality of all criteria – match before the first victory with shortened time control (special regulations).

14.3. In personal-team youth competitions places of the teams are determined:

14.3.1. By the most amount of points scored by twelve best participants (one from each age group 26, 19, 16, 13, 10, 8 year and younger among boys and girls) in the classic program.

14.3.2. In the team qualification separately for boys and girls by the most amount of points scored by six best participants (one from each age group 26, 19, 16, 13, 10, 8 year and younger among boys or girls) in the classic program.

14.3.3. In the case of equality of points places of teams defined by the lowest amount of places occupied by members of the team.

14.4. In personal-team competitions among men and women places of teams are determined:

14.4.1. By the maximum amount of points scored by 3 best players from the country in men (the team must have at least 2 players); 2 best players from the country in women.

14.4.2. In the case of equality of points of two or more teams, team places are determined by the highest place occupied by the best player of the team.

14.5. In team competitions are given 2 points for a win in the match, 1 point for a draw and 0 points for a loss. Places are determined by the maximum amount of points.

14.5.1. In the case of equality of points, places of teams determined by:

1. biggest amount of points scored by all team members
2. according to 14.2.1 for the competition on the Swiss system
3. according to 14.2.2 for round robin competition.

14.5.2. The team that won all the games, but has 2nd place by points, is entitled to an additional match for the 1st place. In the case of a draw in this match the team with the most points in the main tournament is awarded for the 1st place.

15. Awards

15.1. Winners of personal championships are awarded by official medals and diplomas, cups from the organizers.

15.2. In personal-team youth competitions: teams - prize winners in overall team classification (6 boys plus 6 girls) are awarded cups and diplomas, members of the teams – diplomas. Teams - prize winners in the team classification from boys and girls, as well as members of these teams are awarded diplomas.

15.3. In personal -team competitions for men and women: teams - prize winners as well as members of these teams are awarded diplomas.

15.4. In team competition: teams - prize winners are awarded cups and diplomas, members of the teams – medals and diplomas.

15.5. Additional prizes are established by the organizers in accordance with the Conditions of IDF official competitions.

16. Financial conditions.

16.1. All IDF official competitions are held with the payment of tournament fee for participation.

16.2. Established the size of tournament fees for each participant.

16.2.1. World Championship.

Age category	Fee, Euro Program			Remark
	Classic	Rapid	Blitz
Men	100	100		players on item 12.2
	180
Women	80	80		players on item 12.2
	150
Boys and girls 26, 19, 16, 13, 10, 8 year and younger	30	30		3 players from country on item 12.4.
	50			3 players from country on item 12.4., champions of the previous championship
	45	45		other players on item 12.4.
	75
Teams	60	60	60	for the men's team on item 12.6.
	160/110 (for 2 program)
	40	40	40	for the women's team on item 12.6.
	110/75 (for 2 program)
Veterans	30	-----	20	players on item 12.5.
	40

16.2.2. European Championship

Age category	Fee, Euro Program			Remark
	Classic	Rapid	Blitz
Men	60	60		3 winners of the previous championship, 3 winners of the World Cup 3 players from the country on item 12.3.
	110
	90	90		other players on item 12.3.
	170
Women	60	60		players on item 12.3.
	110
Boys and girls 26, 19, 16, 13, 10, 8 year and younger	30	30		3 winners of the previous championship, 3 players from the country on item 12.4.
	50
	45	45		other players on item 12.4.
	75
Teams	60	60	60	for the men's team on item 12.6.
	40	40	40	for the women's team on item 12.6.
Veterans	30	----	20	players on item 12.5
	40

16.2.3. Other official events

Age category	Fee, Euro	Remark
World Cup	50	By separate rules

17. The fee for the right to host.

Organizers have to pay to the International Draughts Federation before the event fee for the right to host:

- World Championships among men and women, match for the world title - 5000 euros
- European Championship among men and women - 3000 euros
- Stage of World Cup - 200 euros
- Other World and Continental Championships - 200 euros
- International tournaments under the auspices of IDF - 50 euros
- Youth Championships - 0 euros

18. Costs of hosting of competition and reception of participants are in accordance with Conditions of the official competition of the International Draughts Federation (IDF) in 2016-2018 approved by the IDF General Meeting of August 29, 2016 with changes and additions by decision of the IDF Board from 16.12.2016, 04.12.2017.

Payment of expenses for reception of participants (accommodation and meals) is only for participants of national organizations - IDF members. Only participants who take part in all three programs are paid for by the organizers.

The exception may be made on an individual basis by a special decision of the IDF Board.

19. Applications.

Applications for participation in official competitions are served to the IDF office on e-mail: office@idf64.org within the time specified in the Competition Rules. Applications submitted late will not be considered.

20. Any changes to these rules shall be permitted only by the IDF General Meeting or by the IDF Board.