Tournament regulations

Competitions are held on the official rules of the IDF.

Competitions are personal.

Competitions are held separately among men and women in 3 programs: Classic, Blitz and Rapid.

All programs are held according to the system of micro-matches from two games with a draw mandatory in both games of the micro-match:

◆ for men:

- with the draw of moves and positions according to the official table (745 positions) approved on 12/16/2016, as amended on 07/03/2017 - international / Russian version;

◆ for women - with a draw for moves according to the official table (150 items), approved on 05/05/2016.

The draw of the first round is held taking into account the ratings, each next round - with the computer drawing program.

The system of each competition and the number of rounds is set by the panel of judges depending on the number of participants.

Time control:

Rapid game – 7’+5” till the end of the game for each participant;

Blitz game – 3’+5” till the end of the game for each participant;

Classic game – 40’+10” till the end of the game for each participant; a break between games is 5 minutes; recording of moves is required until the end of the game.

Determination of winners

Places of participants in each competition are determined by the maximum amount of scored points. For the victory is given - 2 points for a draw – one point, for loss – 0 points.

In case of equality of points for two or more participants in the preliminary stages, places the participants are determined by the following criteria:

- ◆ amount of points scored by opponents, excluding the lowest result (reduced Solkof coefficient), excluding the 2 lowest results, 3 lowest results, etc.
- ◆ amount of points scored by all competitors (Buchholz coefficient).
- ◆ the best result with rivals in the order of the occupied places.

Awarding

Prize-winners of the competition among men and women in each program are awarded cups, medals and diplomas.

All participants in the classic program are awarded with commemorative diplomas.

The prize fund and additional prizes will be announced by the organizers at the opening of the competition.

Finances

All expenses for travel, meals and accommodation of participants are paid by sending organizations or the participants themselves. The costs of organizing and conducting competitions are paid by the Organizing Committee.
