Tournament regulations

Three separate draughts competitions are held:

draughts-64 - international/Russian draughts

draughts-64 - Brazilian draughts

draughts-100

All competitions are held according to the Swiss system in 7-9 rounds.

Draughts-64 competitions are held according to the system of micro-matches of two games with a drawing of starting moves and positions according to the official IDF tables.

In draughts-100 competitions, participants play one game.

Determination of winners

Places of players in each program are determined by the biggest amounts of points. In case of equality of points for two or more participants the additional criteria are established by the panel of arbiters according to the regulations of the competition.

In each program winners among men and women are determined.

Additionally, winners and prize-winners among veterans and juniors up to 20 years (boys and girls 2002 and younger) are determined depending on the number of participants.

Participants of the World Cup get points in the overall standing of the World Cup in accordance with the Regulations of the 2021 World Cup. The points for the places in each competition are summed up.

Awards

Participants who took 1st place in each competition among men and women are awarded cups.

Participants who took 1st, 2nd and 3rd place in each competition among men and women are awarded medals and diplomas.

Participants who took 1st, 2nd and 3rd place in each competition among veterans and juniors up to 20 years are awarded diplomas (If determined).

The prize fund of the World Cup is not less than 2,000 euros.
