

Information about the accommodation of participants of draughts events in the Aqualife Sports Complex and the cost of accommodation and meals

The costs of accommodation with 3 meals a day (buffet) for participants, coaches and accompanying persons of World Cup are:

From August 22 (arrival day) to August 29 (departure day) 2022 (7 days):

| Building | Accommodation | Price per personper day, € | Total costper person, € |
|-----------------|----------------------|--|-------------------------------------|
| AquaLife        | single               | from 45,00                             | from 315,00                         |
|                 | double               | from 31,00                             | from 217,00                         |
|                 | triple               | from 29,00                             | from 203,00                         |
| Sport           | double               | from 36,00                             | from 252,00                         |
|                 | triple               | from 34,00                             | from 238,00                         |
| Active          | single               | from 50,00                             | from 350,00                         |
|                 | double               | from 36,00                             | from 252,00                         |
| Tower           | single               | from 55,00                             | from 385,00                         |
|                 | double               | from 40,00                             | from 280,00                         |

Additional days before the start and after the end of the competition are paid at the prices per person per day indicated above.

Additional Information:

- The number of rooms in the buildings is limited; booking accommodation is in the order of receipt of applications.
- In case of cash payment, payment is made in denominations of no more than 100 euros.
- Sports Complex "AquaLife" will provide for the participants of the competition free of charge various sports grounds on the territory of the complex.